offences an indictment for conspirity would lie -namely, " Proventing the course of justice or prejudicing a third party;" and although the statute dal not require the information to be THE British Steamer upon oath, yet, on account of the grave character of the offence and the high position of the parties accused, he had thought it right to wear tothetrothof the facts stated in the information Mr. Tyrwhitt declined to grant a summons, a the same time stating that the high position the parties would have no influence with him. He would, however, act under the statute, and do what Mr. Wason asked him to do, return the information and take his recognizances to proscente the charge at the Old Railey. ----AMUSING DOG CASE. A singular case of disputed ownership of dog came before the Wandsworth police-court. A man named Samuel Builfard summoned Wil liam Todd for the recovery of a black retrieve dog, which he said he lost in Ap il, and which. went by the name of Rover. The defendant fathered that he had had the dog in his possession name of Jack. Mr. Ingham, the magistrate, Lara, Master, will have immediate dispatch as asked the two men to try the effect of calling above. tim dog by the names which they respectively applied to him. The defendant called Juck and the log turned and went to him; standing a front and looking up to his face. The dog absoranswered a call of the magistrate, who said THE First-class French barque it appeared a friend y animal and would answer to any name. Mr Ingham said he did not know how to decide the ownership, unless be Bose, Master, will have quick dispatch for the adopted King Solomon's plan, and had the dog above port. cut in halves to be divided between the parties. The summons was adjourned for the production of a witness, and of the second occasion the dog was not produced. The defendant, in replyit the magistrate, said the dog had had enough of the police court, and on coming to the court it turned up its nose and went the other way. A witness stated that the dog followed two ladies into his shop a few days before the complainant missed his dog. He kept the dog, as it would not leave the place, and gave it to the defen dant. Mr. Ingham ultimately refused to make any order. - Poll Mall Gazette.

WILL MAKING. Lord Penzance, in giving judgment on a will case, expressed his opinion that the practice of Thomson, Master, will load at Whampon for attempting to obtain wills from dying persons | the above port at current rates, and having is rather increasing than otherwise. Some part of her Cargo engaged will neet with quick people seemed to think team his foreship that as long as there was any life left a dying person for Freight or Passage, apply to BIRLEY & Co. people seemed to think (said his lordship) that | dispatch. they were able to say "Yes" or "No" to a question, or lo recognise those about them; much FOR MELBOURNE AND SYDNEY. more was required to constitute testamentary THE A.1 Clipper ship capacity. If any one from carelessness or disinclination let the time for making a will go by it was not because the final hour came without Capt. McKeon, having the greater portion of his intentions baving been carried into effect, her Cargo engaged, will have immediate disthat another person was justified in stepping in patch for the above ports. and doing for him what he ought to have done For Freight or Passage, apply to for himself. In the case which gave rise to these remarks, one Robert Bingham, of Bristol, had propounded the will of his mother, and the judge in summing up the cyldence said it was / NHE Al American Clipper ship not pretended that Mrs. Bingham ever gave instructions to any human being for the will, which was prepared at the mere motion of Robert Bingham, or that she knew anything about the will until the very moment when the attorney and the doctor stood by her bedside, and it was read over to her. The will was a long one, with provisions of a character to challenge the attention of a person whose mind was in full activity, and she wassupposed to have understood it because she was able to say "Yes," and "Perfectly," and monosyllables of that kind. She was so far incapable of voluntary action that no attempt was even made to get her to make her mark. His lordship added that he did not Captain Orentt, having the greater portion of impute to Robert Bingham any intention to do ber cargo engaged, will lead at this and Wham.

against the will .-- Albion. INTERESTING DISCOVERY. - A remarkable discovery has just been made in the old chaich of St. Gervais, Paris. Sume persons who were repairing the woodwork at one of the sides in the left of the nave discovered a secret door, giving access to a small chapel hitherto not known, the walls of which are entirely covered with excellent paintings in the Renaissance style, in good preservation. The church is ex-tremely rich in artistic relica, possessing, among other things, a fine Albert Durer and a remark. able Perugine, besides some stamed glass of Jean County, the father of the French school of the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth
